

Drama, Form III

Course Description

- To expose students to all aspects of theatre production by producing two pieces for the stage during the school year.
- To offer students a basic understanding of acting and theatrical production including set construction, lighting design and stage management