

Honors English: Survey of British Literature, Form IV

Course Description

This course is a survey of British literature. It stresses the importance of British literature in basic literary knowledge and prepares students for college and future literary pursuits. It will focus on the Victorian Age and be supplemented with British literature from other eras to emphasize themes and ideas. Also included in this course is the writing of the Senior Thesis paper. Other smaller papers will be written on a regular basis to highlight the literature being read. Several plays and novels will be read also and are to be determined by the instructor.

Course Goals

That the student will:

- Show a mastery of knowledge of various British authors
- Show mastery of various British literary time periods
- Show proficiency in writing
- Write the Senior Thesis
